

LOOKING FOR S2000 WORKSHOP

I'm looking for a Honda 'expert' workshop in Singapore. The bottom line is that I'm the proud owner of a grey-import 1999 GPW Honda S2000 in KL, Malaysia. The car is neither sold nor serviced by the local Honda dealer and when I telephoned Honda, Singapore, they told me that I couldn't bring a grey import in for service either.

I take great pride in making sure my cars are maintained to the highest standards, original parts, mechanics well versed with the vehicle etc. In fact, when I owned a Ferrari 348, I drove my car all the way to Hong Seh for a thorough service. This decision was fuelled by my experience with Stuttgart Motors (Porsche) who were equally professional. Do you think there's any chance of finding the same quality for my Honda S2000 in Singapore? I do realise the model is very niche, but one can only hope. Sorry for the trouble and keep up the excellent work on an equally excellent magazine.
